In Detail

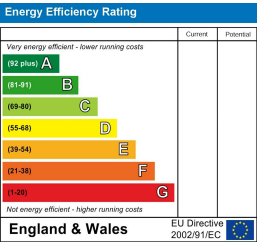

A much loved and completely charming two bedroom semi-detached cottage for sale in this very special area in Penge known as the Alexandra Conservation Area, close to excellent transport links, parks and a wealth of shopping facilities. The light filled and characterful accommodation arranged over two floors, is perfectly balanced and enjoys many attractive features including a wood burner and oak flooring. Beautifully presented throughout this delightful home is ready for a couple or small family to immediately enjoy.

Internally the ground floor comprises a cosy lounge, a dining room with ample space for a table of six, a recently refurbished kitchen, and a family bathroom. Upstairs are two double bedrooms both benefiting from fitted storage. To the rear is the sweet landscaped garden stocked with established plants, attracting an array of wildlife with a range of purple blooms, a lovely lawn, a great patio seating area, perfect for alfresco dining.

Victor Road is one of a few roads within this charming conservation area renowned for their sense of community and location to transport links including Penge West (Overground and Penge East (London/Victoria). Nearby there are a variety of quaint cafes, including in Alexandra Nurseries and Crystal Palace Park.
