In Detail

A well presented one bedroom conversion flat, enviably positioned in the heart of Sydenham, just moments from excellent transport links and local amenities.

Occupying the hall floor of an attractive period building, this impressive apartment has been finished to a high standard throughout. The accommodation comprises a generous double bedroom and a bright, open-plan reception room with a contemporary integrated kitchen, complete with a dishwasher and washing machine. Two delightful Juliet balconies overlook attractive rear gardens, creating a wonderful sense of light and space.

Venner Road is one of Sydenham's most sought-after residential streets, ideally located for the independent cafés, restaurants and shops along Sydenham Road. Both Sydenham and Penge East stations are within easy walking distance, providing frequent services into London via London Overground, Southern and Southeastern rail services. The open green spaces of Crystal Palace Park are also close by.
