In Detail

An opportunity to own a one double bedroom ground floor flat within this large Victorian building set just back off Trinity Rise SW2. The property benefits from having it's own front door, private front & rear patio areas and off-street parking on a first come first served basis.

The property is neutrally decorated throughout and the accommodation comprises a lobby/hall area that is big enough to act as a home office, there is a spacious reception room, good-sized kitchen/dining room with ample wall & base units and access out to your private patio, double bedroom with window overlooking the front, and a bathroom. Leading off from your private patio is a stunning, and vast, South facing communal garden which is mainly laid to lawn with mature shrubs, plants & mature trees providing a real oasis for entertaining family & friends and alfresco dining.

There are a variety of 'everyday' shopping amenities at the bottom of the hill on Norwood Road, and an entrance to Brockwell Park is nearby. Herne Hill centre offers a popular range of shopping & restaurant amenities and Herne Hill station serves Victoria, Thameslink, Blackfriars.

Offer to the market Chain Free.
