A stunning split-level period conversion offering two generous double bedrooms and a beautifully presented interior throughout. The living room features natural wood flooring and double-glazed sash windows, while a neutral colour palette enhances the sense of light and space, creating an airy and inviting environment.

Set on a quiet residential turning just off West Green Road, the property is superbly located to enjoy everything the area has to offer. Local highlights include the much-loved True Craft pub, known for its pizzas and local ales, green-flag-awarded parks, and Seven Sisters Underground Station (Victoria Line, Zone 3), all just moments away. The neighbourhood also boasts an excellent selection of cafés, coffee shops and independent artisan businesses, including Cut Glass Studios, where stained glass is crafted using traditional techniques. Ideal for those who wish to add some colour or showcase a particular feature to a period home.
