The property retains many period features including sash windows, high ceilings and Georgian symmetry.

The larger Unit 1 is split into two well-presented areas connected by a doorway. The principal area is at the front of the building with a good-sized, flexible space for office or retail use; two large sash windows look onto Market Place and Gumstool Hill. The area to the rear includes an attractive kitchen area and WC, as well as a useful store room.

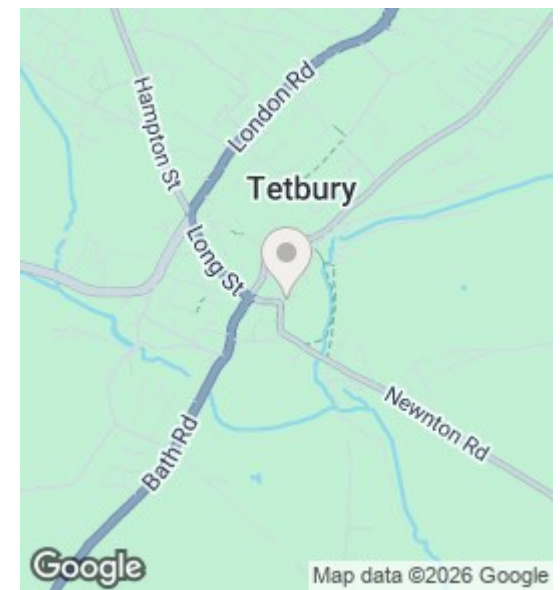

Unit 2 has been renovated to provide another flexible space for office or retail use, and could offer an ideal private meeting room for use alongside Unit 1A and 1B. Two sash windows look out from the front of the building; to the rear there is a storage area, and a separate WC which is accessed off the communal hall. Additional storage space is available in a large cellar which is accessed from Unit 2.

Units 1 and 2 are available as either separate units or one single lease on a long-term lease of 10 years, with the added flexibility of a 5-year break clause, making it an attractive option for businesses looking to establish themselves in this sought-after location.
