DESCRIPTION

The Hayloft is a newly converted and hugely characterful one-bedroom maisonette located in the rural hamlet of Knockdown set amongst a small collection of residential homes of similar converted farm buildings.

On entering the property there is a hallway with stairs leading to the main accommodation upstairs, as well as a handy utility area. Upstairs the accommodation opens up into a light and spacious open plan living room and kitchen with original character beams, slit windows and painted brick walls. The beautifully presented kitchen is complete with shaker-style fitted units, white-tiled walls and integrated appliances including a fridge, dishwasher, electric oven and hob. Off the living room and via a quirky stone arch there is a study which could also be used as an occasional bedroom. There is a good size double bedroom and a stunning Jack & Jill bathroom with a walk-in shower which connects to the bedroom and main living area.

Externally, there is a private courtyard garden and secure off-street parking for two cars.

Knockdown is a small rural hamlet located on the edge of the Badminton Estate and about a mile from the famous Westonbirt Arboretum. There is a popular pub, The Holford Arms, just a few minutes walk from The Hayloft, and a garage and store less than a mile away in Didmarton.
