Nestled in the vibrant heart of Leeds, this charming two-bedroom house on Byron Street offers a unique blend of modern living and historical character. Originally a converted mill, this property boasts an impressive 732 square feet of well-designed space, making it an ideal home for professionals or small families seeking convenience and style.

Built-in 2001, the house features two spacious bedrooms, each thoughtfully designed to provide comfort and privacy. With two bathrooms, morning routines will be a breeze, ensuring everyone has their own space. The open-plan living area is perfect for entertaining guests or enjoying quiet evenings at home. At the same time, large windows allow natural light to flood the space, creating a warm and inviting atmosphere.

One of the standout features of this property is the underground parking, a rare find in city centre living, providing both security and ease of access.

Living on Byron Street means you are just a stone's throw away from the bustling amenities of Leeds city centre, including shops, restaurants, and cultural attractions. This property is not just a home; it is a lifestyle choice that combines the charm of a converted mill with the conveniences of modern living. Whether you are looking to invest or find your next home, this delightful house will impress.
