

5 PARK ROAD DAWLISH

£414,995
FREEHOLD

First time to the market in over 55 years, 5 Park Road is a substantial and characterful 19th-century period property offering generous living space, rich local history, and exciting potential — all just moments from Dawlish town centre and its beautiful seafront.

Some homes are built. Others are kept. This is a home that has quietly done both for well over a century.

Over the years, the building has played a meaningful role in the local community, having served at different times as both a school and a church before becoming a much-loved private residence. Those earlier chapters still echo gently through the high ceilings, generous proportions, and calm sense of space found throughout.

Coming to the market for the first time since 1968, the house has remained in the same ownership for over five decades — a rare and compelling testament to both the home itself and its enviable location.

Inside, the accommodation is generous and flexible, featuring five double bedrooms, two retaining original fireplaces that add warmth and character. With two bathrooms and a well-balanced layout, the home is ideally suited to family living, multi-generational households, or those seeking a spacious coastal retreat.

At the heart of the home lies a large and welcoming lounge centred around a log burner — a space made for long evenings, conversation, and quiet comfort.

- 5 spacious bedrooms • 2 modern bathrooms • Fully modernised house • Built in 1860 • South-facing private patio

Entrance/Hallway

The property is entered via a welcoming entrance hallway, finished in neutral tones and offering a bright, well-presented first impression. The hallway provides access to the principal ground floor rooms, with carpeted stairs rising to the first floor and a practical layout that allows for easy circulation throughout the home.

Living Room

Located to the right of the hallway, the living room is a warm and inviting reception space, centred around a feature wood-burning stove set on a slate hearth with a solid timber mantel above. This room offers a cosy yet stylish atmosphere, ideal for relaxing evenings, with ample space for comfortable seating and soft furnishings. The neutral décor and plush carpet enhance the sense of comfort and calm.

Kitchen/ Dining Room

Positioned to the rear of the property, the kitchen is a bright and well-appointed space, fitted with a range of shaker-style wall and base units complemented by solid wood worktops and tiled splashbacks. Integrated cooking appliances are neatly arranged, with additional space for freestanding white goods. There is ample room for a dining table, making this an ideal family kitchen or entertaining space. A large window allows plenty of natural light, while contemporary lighting fixtures add a stylish touch.

Utility Area

At the end of the hallway is a useful utility area, providing additional worktop space and storage. This practical space also houses laundry facilities and benefits from a door leading directly out to the rear garden, making it ideal for everyday family living.

Ground floor Bedroom One

Also located on the ground floor is a versatile additional room, currently presented as a bedroom but equally well-suited for use as a children's playroom, games room, home office, or guest accommodation. Finished in neutral tones with fitted carpet, this flexible space adds significant practicality to the layout of the home.

First Floor Landing

The staircase rises to a well-proportioned first-floor landing, providing access to all three bedrooms, the family bathroom, and a separate WC. The landing is finished in neutral décor with fitted carpet, maintaining the clean and cohesive presentation found throughout the home.

Bedroom Two

A generous double bedroom positioned to the front of the property, featuring high ceilings, a large sash-style window allowing ample natural light, and an original feature fireplace which adds period charm.
