Offers in the region of £179,950

Council Tax Band: B

A well-presented semi detached home, enjoying a generous south-facing garden, large summer house, garage and driveway, and offered to the market with no onward chain. Ideally positioned in the popular Eastbourne area of Darlington, the property is within easy walking distance of local shops, amenities and schooling, while the A1(M), A66, town centre and railway station are all readily accessible.

The accommodation provides a practical and appealing layout, with two reception rooms to the ground floor. The front-facing lounge benefits from an open aspect through to the adjoining dining room with French doors, creating a pleasant sense of space and making this an ideal area for both relaxing and entertaining. There is also a fitted kitchen to the rear, housing the Combi boiler, and allowing access to the garden.

To the first floor are three bedrooms, comprising two good-sized double bedrooms and a useful single bedroom, together with the family bathroom, including bath with overhead shower.

Externally, the property has much to offer. To the front is a low maintenance gardens, generous driveway, and access to the garage. The rear garden is a particular highlight, enjoying a south-facing aspect and offering excellent outdoor space for families, gardening or entertaining. A large summer house provides additional versatile space and could be utilised as a home office, hobby room or garden retreat.

Further benefits include modern uPVC double glazing, together with a contemporary composite front door, and gas central heating.

Offered with no onward chain, this is a particularly appealing opportunity for buyers seeking a home with excellent outside space, parking and convenient transport links. Early viewings recommended.
