This truly superb four/five bedroomed stone built detached period cottage is tucked away from the main thoroughfare yet within easy reach of a host of nearby amenities including Sindelfingen Park, shops, doctors/pharmacist and renowned local schooling.

The attractively presented and nicely appointed property is understood to date back to the mid 1850's and has been tastefully improved to have the benefit of a re-slatted roof in July 2025, impressive new kitchen fittings along with new uPVC double glazed windows and new combination boiler within relatively recent years.

The deceptively proportioned accommodation extends to just under 1500 sq ft (140 sq m) and briefly comprises: reception hall, new composite front door, impressive open plan living/dining kitchen having been tastefully appointed with a range of new units in November 2024 with there being a double sided log burner, spacious living room, rear lobby, ground floor bedroom or study with en-suite wash room with built in wardrobes. Opening off the reception hall is a large utility/store and office which is ideal for anyone working from home.

First floor landing off which opens three bedrooms, excellent family bathroom and superb master bedroom with en-suite shower room and walk in wardrobe.

Outside there is off road parking and access from Oxclose Lane with there being additional on street parking off Windsor Drive. The private garden is an appealing feature of the property complementing the accommodation being lawned with hedging and having a stone flagged patio, pergola and herbacious beds.
