15 High Street New Whittington

£195,000

An excellent opportunity to acquire a deceptively well proportioned three bedroomed semi detached house which is enviably located backing onto fields and farmland yet standing within easy access of a host of amenities including local schooling.

Rarely offered to the market having only had two previous owners, this traditional property offers gas fired central heating, uPVC double glazing and briefly comprises: side entrance hall, front sitting room having a feature fireplace and bay window, dining/living room with understairs store/pantry cupboard, fitted kitchen which has potential to be opened through into the rear outhouse/store. First floor landing, two double bedrooms (one having far reaching views over the town and the other with the delightful aspects of the fields to the rear). Excellent shower room and bedroom three within which is housed the Baxi gas fired combination boiler.

Block paved forecourt parking, low maintenance rear garden with excellent large shed and useful outhouse.
