Violet Cottage Newgate

Offers In The Region Of

£675,000

This beautiful three bedroomed detached cottage is delightfully situated amidst rural surroundings and enjoys a stunning outlook over the countryside.

Originally built in 1910 the property has been lovingly extended and sympathetically refurbished since 2022 to an exceptionally high standard to include a new slate roof, extensive replastering, upgraded wiring, and new windows. Located only a few minutes drive from the centre of the increasingly sought after village or Barlow with its excellent range of amenities including cafe and two renowned bistro pubs along with a reputable primary school, the property possesses a wealth of charm and character blended with up to date modern appointments and briefly comprises: entrance hall, outstanding dining kitchen fitted in 2023 along with new Rayburn condensing oil fired central heating boiler and quartz worksurfaces and a walk in large pantry. Cosy living room with feature fireplace, stone heath and log burning stove (again in 2023), side entrance /utility ideal for muddy boots, coats and anyone with pets, excellent downstairs shower room/WC. First floor landing with access via a ladder to the loft space which is 2/3 boarded for storage. Two front facing double bedrooms which take full advantage of the stunning views, large single bedroom and superb family bathroom which again has been attractively refurbished.

Undoubtedly the beautiful garden is a most appealing feature of this property, perfectly complementing the accommodation with enclosed lawned and walled forecourt. The garden continues to the far side again primarily lawned with an interesting feature being the original well (which is capped for safety). Tegular paved drive leads in providing ample off road parking with the main part of the garden having a stone flagged sitting out area, various fruit trees including apple and plum, greenhouse, shed, summerhouse. External power, lighting and cold water tap.
