Nestled within the beautiful and highly sought-after Revesby Estate, this wonderfully spacious country cottage offers an exceptional opportunity to enjoy rural living in a private and peaceful setting. Recently refurbished throughout, the property combines the charm and character of a traditional estate cottage with the comfort and convenience of modern living. The accommodation is generously proportioned, featuring bright and welcoming living spaces, well-sized bedrooms and attractive period details, including a delightful open fireplace that forms a focal point of the sitting room. The newly fitted kitchen and updated bathroom have been thoughtfully finished to complement the property's character, while new flooring, redecoration and double glazing ensure a fresh and comfortable home ready for immediate occupation. Offering flexible accommodation as either a two or three-bedroom home, the cottage is ideally suited to couples, families or those seeking additional space for home working.

Outside - The property enjoys attractive wrap-around gardens with far-reaching views across the surrounding Lincolnshire countryside. A private driveway provides ample off-road parking, while the single garage and additional outbuildings offer excellent storage and practical space.

The setting is particularly appealing for those seeking a quieter lifestyle, with the beauty of the estate on the doorstep. Location - Situated along a private road in the heart of the historic Revesby Estate, the property benefits from an enviable rural position surrounded by open countryside. The estate is renowned for its attractive environment, sense of community and peaceful atmosphere. The cottage is conveniently located for access to local villages, reputable schools, country pubs and everyday amenities, making it an ideal balance of countryside living and practicality.
