

Three Penny House, Mill Lane

Fulletby, Horncastle, LN9 6BJ

BELL

Three Penny House is a notably spacious, versatile, family home with potential annex space; accommodation in all spread across over 8000 sq ft (including the tandem garage). The property is currently configured as a five-bedroom family home, with lounge and dining room to the front; modern kitchen and a versatile games room with bar area. To one side is a large family room (formerly the swimming pool, now filled and covered) with wetroom alongside.

The potential annex space offers two exceptionally large rooms for configuration; plus a first floor are to be established (over 60' wide), living and dining room spaces, bathroom and potential larger bathroom area alongside. These areas could also be suitable for business use or significant storage, subject to any necessary consents.

The property occupies a corner position in the village of Fulletby within the Lincolnshire Wolds, a designated National Landscape. A short drive away are the market towns of Horncastle and Louth while a little further is the historic Cathedral city of Lincoln, with rail links to the East Coast main line including London King's Cross. The Viking Way long distance walking path running through the village, in front of the property: a rambling route spanning from Rutland to the banks of the Humber.

Prospective purchasers are keenly encouraged to view to appreciate the scale of accommodation on offer; and best ascertain a configuration that meets their requirements. Many of the bedroom and reception spaces, plus the potential annex (subject to any necessary consents) , are wholly versatile to suit multiple uses.
