NO ONWARD CHAIN! Colkirk House is a beautiful, 4/5 bedroom family home, occupying a commanding town centre position. Providing versatile living accommodation to the upper floor, including a large lounge; and kitchen stepping out to Southerly terrace with view of St Mary's Church spire, the property presents a rare opportunity to occupy a slice of Horncastle history.

Accommodation continues to the upper floor with a large dining room, pantry off the kitchen; office, sewing room and craft room / bedroom five. Beneath are four bedrooms, including large master with en suite, leading off a central hallway with spiral staircase, plus a family bathroom and utility - with access down to a full-width cellar.

The property enjoys a wealth of period features, including wood flooring, exposed beams to ceiling and walls and a central winch lift above the front door - a direct link to the building's past as a factory and store. To the northern (riverside) end of the property is painted 'Lunn & Dodson', 'established 1846, telephone no. 17' 'Tea blenders & coffee roasters', etc... advertising the wholesale and retail grocers who closed c. 1970.

Occupying an extremely central position, the lawned garden leads down to stand above the River Bain, with the property accessed from Manor House Street, opposite the church. Within walking distance are a full range of services, amenities and schooling; with public transport linking Horncastle to the city of Lincoln, East Coast at Skegness and inland resort of Woodhall Spa.
