There is a pedestrian footpath which runs from the front of the bungalow down its eastern elevation through to the wonderful rear garden which has been attractively landscaped and is well enclosed and surprisingly private for such a residential location. Adjoining the rear western elevation of the bungalow there is a good size paved patio terrace with an accompanying shading veranda onto which the French doors of the garden room open. There is an accompanying area of formal lawn with flowerbeds and borders containing buddleia, ornamental conifers, clematis, berberis, honeysuckle, hydrangea, to name a few. There is a useful garden shed set to one corner, an exterior light fitting, power point and a water tap.

Washingborough is one of Lincoln's most desirable villages, offering an excellent range of amenities including highly regarded schools, doctor's surgery, supermarkets, cafés, public houses and a variety of local shops. The historic Cathedral City of Lincoln lies approximately four miles to the north, while the nearby Eastern Bypass provides excellent road connections around the city and beyond. The village is also particularly convenient for RAF Waddington and other service bases in the area.
