The main entrance leads in to a family room with hard stone flooring, inglenook fireplace with wood burner and access to main living space. This space is saturated in oak beams, stone flooring and a further fireplace with wood burner.

The kitchen/breakfast room caters to every need with ample storage, large gas stove/cooker/oven and integrated appliances. The conservatory which overlooks the garden, works well as an additional dining space. In addition, the utility room and stylish bathroom compliment the accommodation on the ground floor.

On the first floor there are three bedrooms, the main bedroom has fitted wardrobes, and an ensuite bathroom with a separate shower. Another unique feature is that the second bedroom can be accessed directly from the ground floor or via the main first floor landing as well. The garden provides that countryside feel with views over looking "Ada Cole" horse sanctuary that Broadley Common offers to its residents. The oak framed cart lodge and gravel driveway offers ample parking for the residents and guests.
