Waterfords Estate Agents are pleased to present this well-maintained one-bedroom first floor retirement apartment, located within a sought-after development in the heart of Fleet. This charming home is available exclusively for residents aged 60 and over and is ideally positioned within close proximity to Branksomewood doctors' surgery, the town centre, and local amenities.

Upon entering the secure main entrance, with a video/telephone entry system, residents are welcomed into a stylish communal living room — a perfect space to relax, socialise, or enjoy time with visiting family and friends. The building also benefits from both lift and stair access to all floors, ensuring convenience and accessibility.

The apartment offers thoughtfully designed, light-filled living space, ideal for a relaxed lifestyle. The generous 22'6" living/dining room is the heart of the home, featuring a Juliet balcony that brings in plenty of natural light and offers pleasant views over the communal gardens. Double doors lead into a modern fitted kitchen, well-equipped with integrated appliances, practical storage, and a window allowing for natural ventilation and light.

The spacious double bedroom includes a recessed built-in wardrobe, offering smart storage without compromising space or layout. A refitted shower room adds a touch of luxury, with tasteful tiling throughout, a large walk-in shower, WC, and basin — all finished to a high standard.

With its quiet yet central location, this apartment offers the perfect blend of relaxed living in a vibrant town. Whether you're looking to downsize, enjoy a more relaxed lifestyle, or be part of a friendly and secure community, this property is a must-see. This luxury apartment located in the heart of Fleet Town Centre offering modern and comfortable living throughout for over 55's. Ideally located within a short walk to the High Street, shops, restaurants, cafes, and Hart shopping centre. The train station is also just a short distance, offering links to London, Farnborough, and Basingstoke. Fleet has good road links with the M3.
