If you've always dreamed of living by the sea, this compact studio on Atlingworth Street could be the perfect spot. Located right on Brighton's famous seafront, it offers a rare chance to enjoy coastal living at an affordable price.

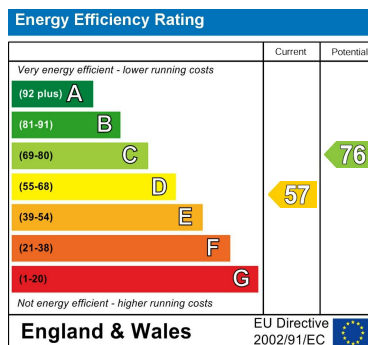

Set within a beautiful period building, the studio is modest in size—but makes a great base for someone who wants to be in the heart of the action. It's ideal for a single person looking for a simple setup, a weekday crash pad, or even a bolt-hole by the beach.

The living space is private, with a shared bathroom just along the hall. The arrangement keeps things straightforward, with just what you need, and nothing you don't.

Step outside and you're right on the promenade, with all the buzz of Brighton just minutes away. Kemptown's independent shops, cafes, and bars are a short stroll in one direction, with the Pier and central Brighton in the other. Whether you're into sea swims, people-watching, or just enjoying the fresh air, the location is unbeatable.

If you're after a low-maintenance, no-frills place to call your own by the sea, this could be just the ticket.
