Tucked away in the ever-loved Hanover neighbourhood, this charming studio apartment is the perfect little Brighton hideaway. Set on a quiet residential road, you get that lovely, peaceful community feel while still being just a short stroll from the buzz of the city centre, the best of Brighton right on your doorstep.

Inside, the studio has been thoughtfully laid out to make the most of the space, creating a cosy and comfortable home with space for both a bright living area and a separate bedroom area and a well-kept bathroom. It's a great match for someone looking for a warm, easy-going place to call their own.

You've also got a sweet front patio ideal for your morning coffee spot plus a private back garden, which is a real bonus in this part of town. A peaceful setting, a friendly neighbourhood, and the city centre just moments away it's a lovely mix you don't often find.

Don't miss your chance to make it yours.
