Full Description

This stunning property is presented in excellent condition throughout and offers bright, stylish accommodation in a highly desirable Battersea location. The flat features an attractive L-shaped fully integrated kitchen with breakfast bar, creating a practical and sociable space for cooking and dining. The bright and airy reception room is tastefully furnished with a stylish sofa, coffee table and bookshelf, providing a comfortable living area with plenty of natural light. The gorgeous double bedroom benefits from original hardwood flooring and is brimming with natural light, with large fitted wardrobes running the full width of the room and offering excellent storage. Located on Battersea High Street, the property is moments from the cafes, restaurants, bars and village-style atmosphere of Battersea Square, as well as the River Thames and its attractive riverside walks. The local area offers a fantastic mix of independent cafes, pubs, restaurants and everyday amenities, with further shopping, dining and leisure options available around Battersea Bridge Road, Clapham Junction, Northcote Road and Battersea Power Station. Battersea Park is also within easy reach and provides one of London's finest green spaces, with riverside walks, landscaped gardens, a boating lake, sports facilities, children's play areas, the Pump House Gallery and Battersea Park Children's Zoo. Transport links are excellent. Clapham Junction Station is nearby, offering superb rail and London Overground connections across London and beyond, including fast access towards Waterloo, Victoria, Gatwick, Brighton, Stratford and Dalston Junction. Numerous local bus routes also provide convenient links across the river towards Chelsea, Fulham, Victoria and Central London. This beautiful flat would be ideal for a single professional or couple seeking a stylish home in a vibrant riverside location. Early viewings are highly recommended.
