Full Description

The property offers a particularly impressive south-facing reception room with high ceilings and two large windows, creating a wonderfully light and generous living space. Furnished with a leather sofa, armchair and table, it provides an ideal room for relaxing, dining or entertaining. The separate fitted kitchen offers excellent cupboard and worktop space and comes complete with integrated appliances, including an electric oven, fridge/freezer and washing machine. Both bedrooms are well-proportioned doubles and are furnished with a double bed, mattress and wardrobe. The bedrooms are positioned towards the rear of the property, offering a quieter outlook away from the High Street. The bathroom is fitted with a large shower cubicle, wash basin and WC. Battersea High Street is a charming and well-connected location, known for its traditional market and attractive mix of independent shops, cafes, pubs and local amenities. Everyday conveniences, including supermarkets and local stores, are within easy walking distance, while the River Thames, Battersea Park and the wider Battersea riverside area are all nearby. Clapham Junction Station is approximately a 10-minute walk away and provides superb transport links across London and beyond, with regular National Rail services towards London Victoria, London Waterloo and wider South West London destinations, as well as London Overground connections. The area is also well served by local bus routes, offering convenient access to Chelsea, Fulham, Wandsworth, Battersea Park, Victoria and the West End. Offered furnished and available now, this attractive flat would be ideal for professional sharers, a couple or anyone looking for a spacious home in a vibrant and highly convenient Battersea location. Early viewings are highly recommended.
