Full Description

Recently redecorated throughout and presented in excellent condition, this charming lower ground floor property retains plenty of character while offering comfortable and well-proportioned accommodation. Further benefits include attractive wood flooring throughout and a large private rear garden. The accommodation comprises a good-sized double bedroom, a spacious and naturally bright reception room featuring an attractive period fireplace and large bay window, a separate fitted kitchen with integrated appliances, and a contemporary neutral bathroom suite with shower over bath arrangement. Westcroft Square is a particularly desirable residential location, ideally positioned just off King Street, offering an excellent selection of shops, cafes, restaurants, supermarkets and everyday amenities right on your doorstep. For those who enjoy outdoor space, the beautiful green open spaces of Ravenscourt Park are within easy reach, providing lovely surroundings for walking, exercising and relaxing. Transport connections are excellent, with Stamford Brook Underground Station (District Line) approximately a five-minute walk away, providing convenient links into Hammersmith, Kensington, Victoria and the City. There are also regular bus services along nearby King Street, offering further connections throughout West London. This property would make an ideal home for a professional couple or single professional seeking a well-presented property in a fantastic West London location. The property is offered on an unfurnished basis and is available immediately. Early viewings are highly recommended to avoid disappointment.
