Full Description

The accommodation comprises a generously sized double bedroom with built-in wardrobes, a separate, well-equipped kitchen and a bright, spacious reception room featuring two large windows that allow plenty of natural light to flood the interior. The property is completed by a well-proportioned family bathroom with a shower over the bath. Presented in excellent condition throughout, the flat is set within a secure, gated development, offering added privacy and peace of mind. The location is ideal for enjoying outdoor space and riverside living, with Fred Wells Gardens just a short walk away, providing attractive green spaces for leisurely strolls and outdoor activities. The picturesque Thames Path is also right on the doorstep, while the popular bars, cafes, restaurants and independent shops of Battersea Square are conveniently close by. Transport links are excellent, with Clapham Junction Station approximately 15 minutes walk away, offering frequent rail services to London Victoria and London Waterloo, as well as connections to destinations across London and the South of England. Imperial Wharf Station is also nearby, providing an alternative rail connection. Regular local bus services further enhance accessibility to Chelsea, Battersea and Central London. Combining spacious accommodation, a secure setting and an enviable riverside location, this property presents an excellent opportunity to enjoy the best of Battersea living. Early viewing is highly recommended to appreciate everything this appealing property has to offer.
