

The Village COLLECTION

Fairview New Homes has drawn upon its talents to plan, design, build and specify every individual element in this fabulous new residential neighbourhood. Set around a village green with a play area, this new community is already firmly established with residents enjoying its semi-rural surroundings.

The two-bedroom en-suite apartments come in three different layouts, so choose whether you prefer open plan living or a separate kitchen and whether on the ground, first or top floor.

UNDISCOVERED COUNTRY

Embrace the pace of life

Surrounded by glorious green countryside with a network of footpaths and bridleways on the fringes of the town, you can establish your own pace of life with leisurely walks or more energetic cycle rides, or even on the outskirts of healthy cross-country runs.

This is the ideal location to explore everything the town has to offer - from the shadowy valleys of the River Rye to the 16th-century buildings that line Buntingford's original High Street. There is an excellent choice for everyday shopping with butchers and bakers, a post office, a chemist, newsagent and a Post Office. A host of more specialised stores add local appeal including an antiques boutique, boutiques, coffee shops and a cheese store.

The options for eating out are remarkably good with several gastronomic restaurants for varied menus and delicious food. There are a few restaurants and bars with welcoming atmospheres offering British, Indian and Chinese food.

The cities of Cambridge and London are perfectly placed for a day of culture or entertainment and the towns of Stevenage and Luton provide easy access for the occasional shopping excursion.
