Throcking Hall Cottage is a characterful four-bedroom period home occupying a generous plot of approximately 0.41 acres, surrounded by open countryside in the peaceful rural hamlet of Throcking.

Offering spacious and flexible accommodation, the property has been extended and updated at various points over the years, including improvements to the kitchen and en-suite, whilst retaining plenty of individual character. The cottage would now benefit from a programme of renovation and presents an exciting opportunity for a new owner to improve and personalise the property to their own taste.

Outside is a particular feature, with established gardens extending away from the house, a former swimming pool, ample driveway parking and a detached double garage with electric roller door. The long plot adjoins open farmland and enjoys a wonderfully rural outlook.

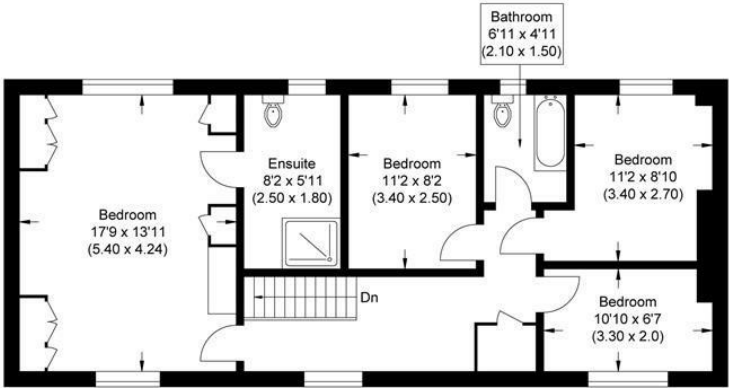

With its combination of four-bedroom accommodation, 0.41-acre plot, countryside setting and scope for improvement, Throcking Hall Cottage offers a rare opportunity to create a wonderful country home in this attractive part of Hertfordshire.

Additional Equestrian Opportunity

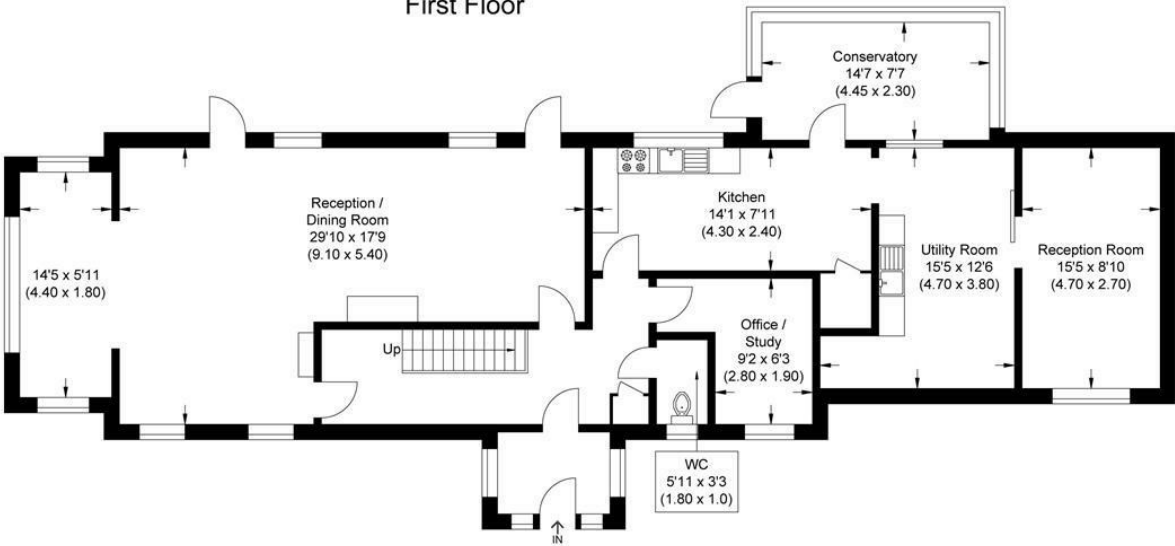

Hollowoak, Throcking, an established 12.6-acre equestrian facility, is also available to purchase separately nearby, offering a rare opportunity to acquire a home and substantial equestrian facilities within the same locality.
