Asking price £680,000
Council Tax Band: E

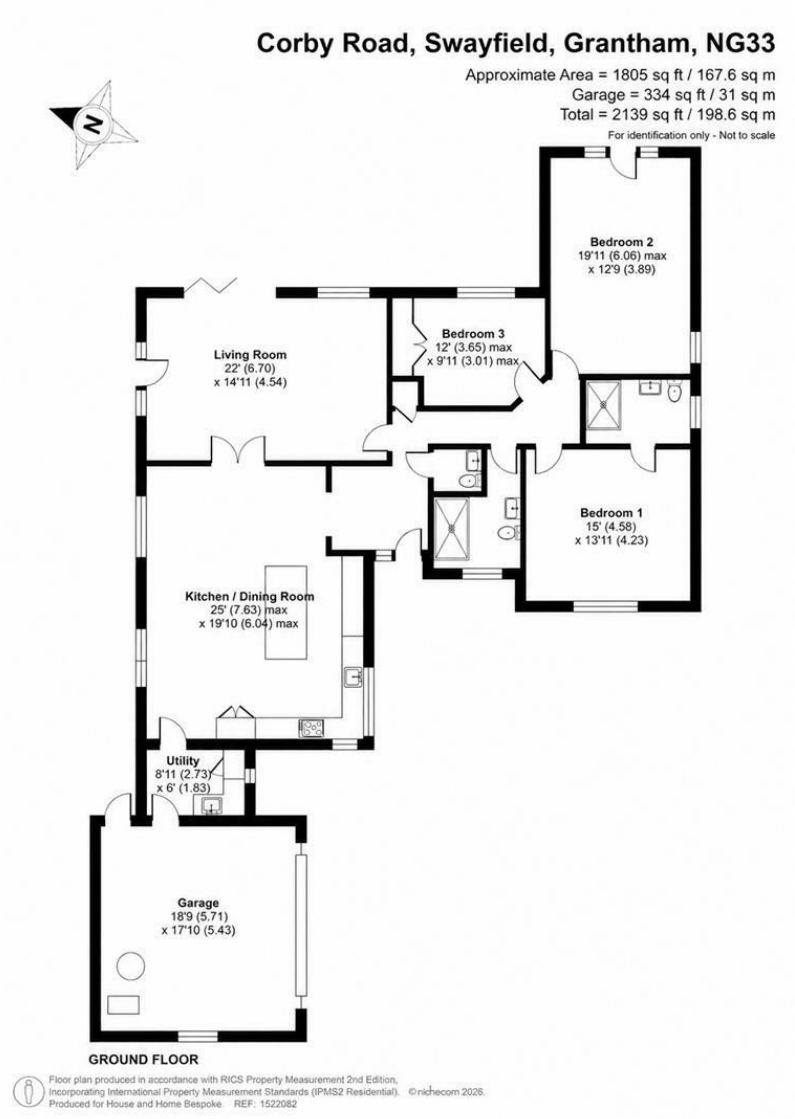

Set behind an impressive private driveway on Corby Road, this exceptional detached bungalow combines contemporary design, generous proportions and beautifully landscaped outdoor space—all within the sought-after village of Swayfield.

At the heart of the home is the superb kitchen and dining room, measuring approximately 25 ft by 19 ft 10 in. Sleek cabinetry, extensive worktops, integrated appliances and a large central island with breakfast seating create a space made for cooking, entertaining and spending time together. There is ample room for a full dining table, while generous windows bring in plenty of natural light.

Double doors connect the kitchen to the impressive 22 ft living room. Spacious yet inviting, this beautifully presented reception room enjoys a dual aspect and direct access to the garden, allowing everyday life to flow naturally between the interior and outside.
