Bentlawnt is a peaceful hamlet nestled within the beautiful South Shropshire countryside and within an Area of Outstanding Natural Beauty, offering an idyllic rural setting surrounded by rolling hills, unspoilt farmland and far-reaching countryside views. The property occupies a particularly attractive elevated position, enjoying commanding views towards the Stiperstones, Devil's Chair, Snailbeach and further across the Hope Valley.

The area is renowned amongst country lovers, walkers, cyclists and horse riders, with numerous adjoining country lanes, public footpaths and scenic routes to explore. The nearby Stiperstones National Nature Reserve and Hope Valley provide miles of beautiful countryside and walking trails.

Everyday amenities can be found in the nearby village of Minsterley, approximately 4 miles away, with facilities including a supermarket with petrol station, primary school, public house, butchers, flower shop, hairdressers, vets and two fish & chip shops. The neighbouring village of Pontesbury also provides a wider selection of shops and local facilities including Pharmacy, GP practice, sought after secondary school and a dental practice. There is also a bus service available nearby to the property itself, providing useful links to the surrounding villages and Shrewsbury.

Commuters will be pleased to note there is access through to the county town of Shrewsbury with its excellent leisure amenities and the A5 which provides links through to the M54 and onto the Midlands.
