LOCATION

Located near the village of Llangynog with its village hall, bowling green, two public houses, and local church. There is a medical clinic in Llanfyllin with further amenities available in the popular market towns of Oswestry and Welshpool, both boasting a wide range of hotels, restaurants, and cafes, major retailers as well as an eclectic mix of independent stores, together with an array of leisure facilities.

Llangynog is a beautiful area especially if you are into your hill walking and outdoor pursuits. The Berwyn Mountain range are lower than the snowdonia peaks so tend to be a little less busy. However, the topmost peaks are rugged and have a distinctive character. Nearby towns include Llangollen and Corwen, which are popular tourist destinations.
