11 Canal Cottage, Four Crosses, Llanymynech

11 Canal Cottage, Four Crosses, Llanymynech £250,000

A charming Grade II listed Victorian stone cottage of immense character, situated close to the Montgomeryshire canal with an idyllic country garden. The property is in need of some updating, and in brief the accommodation affords kitchen/breakfast room, living room, first floor lounge (with relevant permission could be split to offer further bedrooms), bedroom and bathroom. Externally there is a parking area for two cars, well established gardens. Canal Cottages are located in a semi rural setting with amenities and good road connections close by.

LOCATION

The property is located with direct access on to the Montgomery canal via a shared pathway. The Montgomery Canal is a partially restored canal in Powys. The canal runs 33 miles from the Llangollen Canal to Newtown, via Llanymynech and Welshpool.

Wildlife thrives along the Montgomery Canal, it is one of the most important canals in the country for nature. The canal is the best location in the world for floating water plantain. Several nature reserves border the canal, filled with wildflowers and insects, including dragonflies and damselflies. Walking or cycling along the towpath is an excellent way to experience the peace and tranquillity of this rural canal. This is also a popular canal for canoeing. There are good road connection for commuting to Oswestry, Shrewsbury and Welshpool.
