The property lies to the north of Bryn Goleu and is conveniently positioned approximately 0.2 miles southeast of the B5069, providing good connectivity between St Martins and Ellesmere, with direct access from a minor council-maintained road linking Street Dinas and Pentre Morgan.

The land comprises a well-shaped and manageable block of gently undulating pastureland, divided into practical enclosures and currently utilised for the seasonal finishing of cattle and sheep. It is presented in good agricultural condition and is well suited to continued livestock grazing, whilst also offering scope for alternative uses including arable conversion, environmental schemes or other diversification opportunities, subject to the necessary consents. The holding benefits from a convenient roadside position and includes useful livestock handling and loading facilities with covered penning, making it a practical and attractive opportunity within a strong agricultural locality.

DESCRIPTION

The land has roadside access and is currently set to permanent pasture and is used for the grazing of mixed livestock. The farmland itself is grade 3 land. It is well managed and maintained and does have scope for other arable practices.

SERVICES

Mains water supply connections are available across the 65 acres of land.
