

Plot 3, Land at Church House Farm, Llanwnnog, Caersws, SY17 5JG
Asking Price £110,000

Are you looking to build your dream home? This substantial building plot offers a rare opportunity to acquire a plot with reserved matters planning consent for one of only three, individually serviced, luxury homes; designed to resemble a farmyard courtyard with a main farmhouse and surrounding barns.

This unique two storey, five bedroom property, is designed in a long barn style, finished in weatherboarding on brick plinth walls to reflect the local history. The property also includes an attached one storey brick, oak framed double garage, intended to resemble a cart-store traditional rural out-building. The 'L' shaped layout to the property creates a lovely enclosed courtyard garden to the rear, offering seclusion and privacy.

The property is located in the picturesque village of Llanwnnog, on the outskirts of Caersws, approximately 7 miles from the market town of Newtown.

SITUATION

The serviced plots are located within the popular village of Llanwnnog which is well placed for the village of Caersws (approx 2 miles) and the town of Newtown (approx 7 miles) which is host to an excellent range of local amenities to include railway station.

PLANNING

Reserved matters planning consent granted by Powys County Council / Application No (20/1512/RES).

TENURE

We understand that the individual plots are to be sold Freehold with vacant possession upon completion although prospective buyers should make their own enquiries through their solicitor.

METHOD OF SALE

The plot is being offered for sale by private treaty.
