30 Park Crescent, Park Hall, Oswestry, SY11 4AR
Offers In The Region Of £289,995

A charming semi-detached home on a small and well-regarded development in Park Hall, just outside Oswestry. Designed with a cottage-style aesthetic, the property features tasteful modern finishes throughout while retaining a cosy and welcoming feel. In brief the accommodation affords Entrance hall, living room, kitchen/diner, and cloakroom. To the first floor are three bedrooms, ensuite and family bathroom. Externally there is an enclosed garden which is south facing and parking area to the front.

LOCATION

Situated between the market town of Oswestry and the historic village of Whittington, Park Hall is a convenient location for all amenities. Whittington is a popular village providing a post office, village shop, two pubs, a church, a much sought after primary school and an ancient moated castle. Oswestry is a local town on the English and Welsh border famous for its outdoor and livestock markets. With a wide collection of retailers and restaurants, Oswestry is known for its annual fairs, festivals and shows. The area is renowned for its excellent state and private schools including Oswestry School, Moreton Hall, Adcote School for Girls, Ellesmere College and Packwood Haugh. The site itself is in a countryside location but within walking distance of two major employers, British Telecom and The Orthopaedic Hospital. Leisure facilities are also close by at The Venue, Oswestry Rugby Club and The Park Hall Countryside Experience.
