EXTERNALGARDENS

The gardens are an attractive feature of the property and briefly comprise a good sized shaped lawn to the front of the house flanked on two sides by high hedging and a rose border.

To the rear of the house is a good sized orchard in which there are apple, pear and damson trees again all flanked by floral borders.

There is a natural wooded area which was formerly the cutting for the old railway line, which provides a super natural area for wildlife.

PADDOCK

The grounds are a major feature of the property and include a small enclosed part concreted and part grassed compound to the rear of the stables which leads on to a former orchard which, in turn, leads on to the paddock which is down to permanent pasture, at present, contained within a single enclosure with separate vehicular access on to the council maintained roadway. The land is in an area noted for its heavy stocking capabilities and is ideal for the grazing of all kinds of livestock, if required, particularly horses. The property extends, in all, to over 2.5 acres, or thereabouts.
