

Land Opposite Old Barn Close, Llandinam, Powys, SY17 5BL Offers In The Region Of £225,000

The land opposite Old Barn Close, Llandinam presents an excellent opportunity to acquire a highly attractive residential development site benefiting from Outline Planning Permission for four detached, open-market dwellings.

Situated on the outskirts of the popular village of Llandinam, the site enjoys a semi-rural setting, backing directly onto open countryside and offering far-reaching views towards the Llandinam Hills.

This is a rare opportunity to develop a small, exclusive scheme in a sought-after village setting with strong market appeal.

Outline Planning Consent was granted in 2022 under reference 22/0007/OUT for the erection of 4 detached dwellings, together with garaging, the formation of a new vehicular access and associated works.

Subsequently, a variation of condition application (25/0781/REM) was approved, extending the time period to submit reserved matters for a further 3 years and commencement for a further 5 years, with works required to begin on or before 8th of July 2030. This provides a purchaser with a comfortable and flexible timeframe in which to produce detailed designs, discharge conditions, and implement the development.

Surrounding Area

The site is situated on the outskirts of Llandinam, a thriving and well-established village in the heart of Wales. The village benefits from a strong sense of community and a range of local amenities, including a popular restaurant, an active and busy village hall hosting regular events, a primary school, and a church.

Llandinam occupies a highly accessible position on the A470 Trunk Road, providing excellent road connections to Newtown, Llanidloes and the wider Mid Wales region, with onward links to the national road network. This convenient location makes the village particularly attractive to families and commuters seeking a balance between rural living and accessibility, further enhancing the appeal of residential development within the area.
