DESCRIPTION

Oakleigh has been much improved by the current owners and has been extended over the years and now offers a spacious, well presented family home with large welcoming entrance hall leading to a living room and dining sun room. The modern fitted kitchen/breakfast room has a utility off and leads to the impressive orangery. With 4 double bedrooms, en suite shower room and family bathroom. The property is approached via electric gates which lead to a large driveway and onto the double garage and car port. Sat on a plot of approx 0.35 acres with gardens that wrap around the property and make the most of the stunning far reaching views including views towards Powis Castle. Leighton is located at the foot of Long Mountain which offers some beautiful walks through the Leighton Estate Woodlands together with the close proximity of the world renowned Offas Dyke Path. Situated approximately 2 miles from the market town of Welshpool which in turn lies 17 miles from Shrewsbury and 17 miles from Oswestry, making Leighton an easy place from which to access the main Midlands road and rail networks.
