Let UK Home are delighted to present this well-maintained two-bedroom apartment in Treasure House, ideally situated in Birmingham City Centre, just a short walk from the Jewellery Quarter train station.

Treasure House, a benchmark for quality living in Birmingham's Jewellery Quarter, is a five-story modern architectural masterpiece featuring 30 exquisite apartments. From your apartment, you can enjoy stunning views of the unique charm of Birmingham's Jewellery Quarter, from century-old jewelry workshops and vintage-style street architecture to lush green urban spaces and the vibrant, yet sophisticated, city landscape.

Treasure House perfectly meets your needs, offering: underground storage cages, a dedicated bicycle storage area, an elegant courtyard, and a smart access control system, creating a private and secure living space with comfortable leisure amenities.

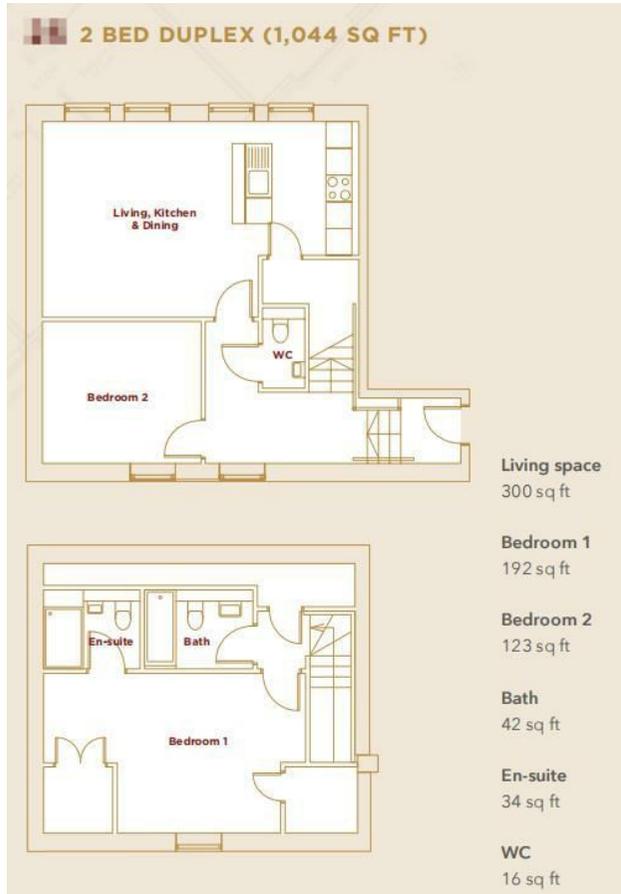

The property within walking distance of the Jewellery Quarter train station, with a well-developed transportation network providing quick and convenient access to Birmingham city center and other areas. From Jewellery Quarter station, you can easily reach Birmingham New Street Station, Birmingham International Airport, and the HS2 high-speed rail interchange. The renowned Birmingham City University School is within walking distance, and Birmingham University and Aston University are also easily accessible.
