Guide price £1,000,000

- Breathtaking Edwardian detached home with driveway and garage
- Tastefully modernised yet maintaining the charming character throughout every room
- Wrap around staircase with original wooden spindles, complimenting the high ceilings, tiled floors and original fireplaces
- Open plan kitchen with bi-folding doors, over looking the extensive, level rear garden
- Two large reception rooms, a separate study and W/C to the ground floor
- Meticulously designed double bedrooms to the top two floors with two bathrooms
- Large landing space with plenty of storage and great size loft room offering spectacular views of the valleys surrounding
- Sought after tree-lined road, tucked a short stroll from Purley Town Centre
- Ideally located for great schools and transport links with bus stops and two train stations within walking distance

A rarely seen gem that boasts modern and character, designed by the current owners to perfectly compliment one another. Endless space throughout, with accommodation across three floors...this truly is the perfect family home!
