Complete refurbishment of this detached house is required but it certainly has enormous potential.

There is gas central heating from a combi boiler, some windows are double glazed and the accommodation is of practical family size with the benefit of three bedrooms on the first floor, two reception rooms and an attached garage which has virtually been converted to provide an additional living room.

N.B. Japanese Knotweed has been identified in the rear garden at this property and a professional, insurance-backed management plan is in place to treat it.

The house is being sold with no onward chain.
