An extended property combines original character features with contemporary living!

A beautifully extended four-bedroom semi-detached home in the sought-after area of Penkhull. Steeped in 1930s charm, this spacious property features original stripped internal doors complete with vintage Bakelite handles, offering a nod to its heritage.

Step inside to discover a stylish, custom built, modern kitchen fitted with elegant shaker-style units, high-end NEFF integrated appliances, and a stunning vaulted ceiling that adds a real sense of space and light. Two generously sized reception rooms provide flexible, comfortable living areas—perfect for both entertaining and everyday family life.

Upstairs, you'll find four well-proportioned bedrooms, along with a bright bathroom featuring a classic white suite and a separate WC. The expansive loft space, easily accessed via a ladder, offers excellent storage or potential for future conversion (subject to permissions).

Outside, a wide tarmac driveway leads to a brick and tile attached garage, while the beautifully landscaped rear garden boasts an Indian stone patio, established planting, and a charming timber gazebo—ideal for summer relaxation.
