If you are looking for family sized accommodation in a property which requires some selective updating, then this house in Anson Road may be the one for you!

The property was home to the previous occupant for an astonishing 84 years, making this a rare opportunity to acquire a house presenting excellent value for money and with the benefit of a larger than average corner plot.

The ground floor offers an entrance hallway, comfortable living room, a practical kitchen and a useful WC. The first floor is home to three good sized bedrooms and the family shower room.

Externally, there are enclosed gardens to the front and rear of the house with the front garden in particular offering generous space and plenty of potential including the option of creating off road parking, subject to the appropriate consent.
