27 Inglefield Avenue, Cardiff CF14 3PY

What a beautiful home! Situated in one of the most popular roads in this area is this extensively but sympathetically modernised, Freehold terrace house of character that retains period features but with the benefits of modern living. Features include a spacious and impressive open-plan living area, a fitted kitchen of good size, 3 bedrooms, and a palatial, superbly-appointed bath/shower room. At the rear is a delightful south-facing patio garden and a workshop/store. The property has gas central heating from a modern Glow-worm Ultimate 35 combi boiler that is situated in the kitchen and there are radiators virtually throughout. It has the added benefit of double-glazing. The Council Tax Band is E. The EPC Rating is C. Natural Resources Wales considers the flood risk in the area as 'very low'.

The property is of the double-bay style of mid-terrace house with attractive facing brick front elevations and the roof is of slates. The lovely bathstone to the bays has been restored. At the front is a walled forecourt, and a feature arched and tiled recessed entrance with period leaded stained glass windows to the sides and to the front door. At the rear is a very pretty patio garden that has a sunny south-facing aspect, and there is a useful workshop/store. There is pedestrian access to a vehicular rear lane.

Local amenities are comprehensive, and include shops, stores and supermarkets, junior and senior schools that include a popular Welsh-language primary school, parks and leisure facilities that include the lovely Roath Park and its famous lake, Heath Park, and Maindy Leisure Centre, a local Post Office and Library. Nearby Whitchurch Road has fast become well-known as a hub of local restaurants, bistros, cafes and coffee shops, and there are popular pubs close-by too. Excellent bus services to and from the city centre serve the local community, and it is also only a short drive to Eastern Avenue and Northern Avenue for access on to the M4.
