A DISTINCTIVE PERIOD COASTAL HOME WITH PANORAMIC SEA VIEWS

Occupying a wonderful position on Sea Road, this handsome detached period residence, believed to date from around the turn of the 20th century, is a house of considerable character, enjoying exceptional views across Westgate Bay.

Rich in original detail and Victorian charm, the house has generous proportions and an individuality rarely found in modern homes. An ornate tiled entrance hall and elegant staircase set the tone, leading to a series of beautifully proportioned reception rooms, including a delightful breakfast room perfectly positioned to enjoy the ever-changing coastal panorama. A well-appointed kitchen with central island and granite worktops leads through to a useful garden room, while the magnificent wraparound conservatory provides a wonderful place to sit and take in the sea views in all seasons.

The accommodation is arranged over three floors, with five bedrooms in total. Three bedrooms occupy the first floor, including a principal bedroom with en-suite, alongside the family bathroom. The top floor provides two further bedrooms and a walk-in loft space, offering considerable flexibility for family, guests, creative pursuits or working from home.

The enclosed front and rear gardens, with lawns and established planting, complement the house beautifully and provide peaceful spaces in which to enjoy the coastal setting.

Westgate-on-Sea retains the charm of a traditional seaside town, with its beaches, independent shops, cafés, restaurants, cinema and railway station all close at hand. Margate, Broadstairs and Ramsgate are also within easy reach.
