Set along a peaceful stretch of Richmond Avenue, this beautifully proportioned family home offers flexible living space, a generous garden, and exciting scope to grow – all right in the heart of Highams Park.

You're welcomed by a classic frontage with the added bonus of a private driveway, a real luxury in this part of E4. Step inside and the house unfolds effortlessly: a cosy front lounge perfect for evenings in, flowing through to a sociable kitchen/dining space at the rear that forms the true heart of the home. Beyond this, a bright conservatory creates a seamless link between indoors and out – ideal for morning coffees, relaxed entertaining or watching the seasons change.

The rear garden is a standout feature: long, green and full of potential, with plenty of room for children to play, summer gatherings, or future expansion. To the rear sits a detached outbuilding currently used as a gym, offering fantastic versatility as a studio, home office or creative space.

Upstairs, you'll find three well-balanced bedrooms and a family bathroom, all arranged off a central landing. The layout lends itself perfectly to reimagining, and for those looking ahead, there's clear potential for both a rear extension and a loft conversion (STPP) – a popular route on this street and a great way to add long-term value.

Location-wise, you're brilliantly placed. Highams Park Overground station is within easy reach, providing swift and direct connections on the Chingford line to Walthamstow Central (Victoria Line access) and London Liverpool Street, making commuting into the City or West End refreshingly straightforward.

Highams Park itself is loved for its village feel and strong community spirit. You're close to the wide open green spaces of Highams Park Lake and Epping Forest, while nearby independent cafés, bakeries and pubs sit comfortably alongside everyday amenities. Excellent local schools further add to the area's enduring appeal.
