14A Stanley Road, London E4 7DB

A well-proportioned, chain free, two-bedroom first-floor flat situated on the popular Stanley Road in the heart of North Chingford, benefiting from a rear garden and a shar of the freehold.

Council Tax Band: C

To the front is a bright and comfortable living room, alongside the second bedroom. This room would also lend itself particularly well to use as a home office or nursery.

Moving through the property is the principal bedroom, a good-sized double. The bathroom is positioned centrally within the flat and is complemented by a separate WC.

To the rear, the accommodation opens into a generously proportioned kitchen/dining room, providing plenty of space for both cooking and dining and creating a sociable everyday living area.

A particular advantage for a property of this type is the rear garden, providing valuable outdoor space for relaxing, entertaining or gardening.

The property is an attractive proposition for first-time buyers, couples, downsizers and purchasers looking for a well-located home with excellent access into Central London.

Stanley Road enjoys a highly convenient position in North Chingford, the area combines the convenience of London living with an abundance of green open space, with Epping Forest, Chingford Plain and the surrounding woodland all close by for walking, cycling and recreation. While Station Road offers a good mix of independent businesses and established retailers.
