Located on the sought-after Nightingale Avenue in the heart of Highams Park, this well-presented three-bedroom mid-terrace home is offered to the market chain free, presenting a fantastic opportunity for buyers looking to put down roots in a vibrant and well-connected community.

The ground floor features two spacious and versatile reception rooms, ideal for both relaxing and entertaining, while the kitchen opens directly onto a generous private rear garden—offering excellent potential for outdoor living and extension opportunities (subject to planning permission). The home also benefits from a neat front garden, adding to its welcoming exterior.

Upstairs, you'll find three bedrooms—two doubles and a single—alongside a family bathroom. The layout is bright and functional, with plenty of scope to personalise or reconfigure. The property also offers significant potential for future development, including rear extensions and loft conversion (STPP), making it an exciting prospect for those looking to expand or add value over time.

Set within the popular Highams Park area, this home enjoys a peaceful residential setting with the convenience of excellent local amenities. Highams Park Station is within walking distance, providing quick and easy access to London Liverpool Street, making it a favourite for city commuters.

The area is known for its welcoming community, abundance of green spaces, and good local schools. Nature lovers will appreciate the proximity to Highams Park Lake and Epping Forest, while the nearby Winchester Road and The Avenue offer a variety of cafés, shops, and services.

With no onward chain, a great location, and plenty of potential for further development, this mid-terrace house is a rare opportunity in one of East London's most desirable neighbourhoods.
