Located on the ever-popular Sandyhill Road in Ilford, this two-bedroom Victorian house offers an exciting opportunity for buyers looking to put their own stamp on a character filled property

Council Tax Band: C

Positioned on a popular residential street close to the heart of Ilford, this two-bedroom period house presents an excellent opportunity for buyers seeking a full refurbishment project. With its generous room proportions, original character features and traditional Victorian layout, the property offers significant potential to redesign, modernise and create a home tailored to individual tastes.

The ground floor currently comprises a reception room with bay window and a kitchen at the rear opening into a lean-to. Each space offers strong scope to reconfigure, extend (subject to planning) or open up to create a more contemporary, free-flowing layout. The house retains many period hallmarks, providing an appealing foundation for renovation.

Upstairs, the first floor features two well-sized bedrooms and a bathroom. As with the ground floor, this level offers flexibility for re-planning or modernising to suit a future owner's requirements.

The rear garden provides further potential for landscaping, outdoor entertaining, or extension work (STPP). The house benefits from a traditional layout, giving renovators a blank canvas to transform into a stylish family home or strong rental investment.

Sandyhill Road sits within a well-established residential area, moments from Ilford Lane and within easy reach of Ilford Town Centre. The property is well placed for access to Ilford Station, now offering Elizabeth Line services for fast and convenient travel into the City, Canary Wharf and Central London.

Local amenities are plentiful, with a wide selection of shops, restaurants and independent businesses nearby. Several parks and open spaces, including South Park and Loxford Park, offer pleasant outdoor areas within walking distance. Well-regarded schools and community facilities add further appeal for families and investors alike.
