As you enter the property, you’re welcomed by a entrance hall leading to a bright and inviting front reception room with a feature bay window. Double doors open into a second, larger reception room overlooking the rear garden, providing an ideal space for family gatherings and entertaining. A well-proportioned kitchen sits to the rear, with access to a conservatory that offers further reception or dining space with garden views. The ground floor also boasts a generous double bedroom with a convenient en-suite shower room — a flexible addition perfect for guests, elderly relatives, or home office use. Upstairs, the property offers three further bedrooms and a family bathroom, with two larger doubles and a comfortable single room. The layout and size offer excellent potential for future loft conversion (STPP), adding further accommodation if desired.

Broadmead Road is a highly regarded residential street in Woodford Green, well known for its family-friendly environment and excellent access to local amenities. The area is perfectly placed for commuters, with Woodford Central Line Station offering direct links to the City and West End. Families are drawn to the area for its excellent local schools, including the popular Woodbridge School, Woodford Prep School, and Bancroft’s School nearby. Residents also enjoy proximity to the open green spaces of Epping Forest, Claybury Park, and The Green, providing endless opportunities for outdoor recreation, while Woodford High Road offers a superb selection of independent shops, cafés, and restaurants.
