Petty Son & Prestwich are pleased to offer this first floor, warden assisted retirement apartment with lift access and range of communal facilities, positioned in the heart of Wanstead.

Positioned on the first floor, accessible by either stairs or lift, this one bedroom apartment is situated at the end of the corridor at the edge of the development, ensuring peace thanks to very little foot traffic outside the flat and only one adjoining neighbour. The occupants benefit from a range of benefits including warden assistance, communal lounge, garden, parking, guest suite and laundry services. Located to the rear of the building the apartment enjoys lovely views across the well-maintained communal gardens. The unusually large entrance hallway provides two generous storage cupboards and leads to a spacious sitting/dining room, fitted kitchen with separate access and window (unusual for the majority of apartments within the building), double bedroom with two fitted double wardrobes and bathroom room. Set back from, but only a few feet from Wanstead High Street, the location of Westleigh Court allows the new owner easy access to all amenities, with an array of shops, restaurants, cafes and two Central Line stations on the doorstep. The home is offered to market chain free.
