Situated within the highly desirable and characterful Wanstead Hospital Development. Ideally located just 0.5 miles from both Snaresbrook Station and Wanstead High Street, the property offers the perfect blend of stylish modern living and local lifestyle. Wanstead is renowned for its village-like atmosphere, independent shops, cafés, bars and restaurants, while excellent transport links include the Central Line from Wanstead, Snaresbrook and South Woodford, numerous bus routes and easy access to the M11, M25 and North Circular. The apartment immediately impresses with its spacious hallway, crisp white walls, warm-grey flooring and large, practical storage cupboard. The bright and spacious lounge diner benefits from three windows across two aspects and a Juliet balcony, creating a light and airy living space with plenty of room for both lounge and dining areas. An archway leads into the sleek contemporary kitchen, finished with matt-grey handleless units, under-unit lighting, marble-effect worktops and a full range of integrated appliances. The generous double bedroom features a striking turquoise half-panelled feature wall, two windows and fitted mirrored wardrobes. Completing the accommodation is a beautifully designed, spa-style shower room, featuring a double shower, stylish black fittings, Crittall-style shower screen and a combination of dark-grey split-face and lighter grey wall finishes. Stylish, contemporary and presented in show-home condition, this exceptional apartment offers modern living in a fantastic Wanstead location.
